1830 Arkansas Census

The 1830 census for the Territory of Arkansas is contained on one roll of microfilm - No. 19, Roll 5. The Fifth Census of the United States 1830 Population Schedules, Territory of Ark. There were 23 counties and the Martins contained in these counties are presented here in the order on the microfilm. There were about 30,000 people in Ark. in 1830; about 26,000 were white persons. The 1830 census counted free colored persons; persons in mining, etc.; pensioners of Rev. War and military service; deaf and dumb persons; schools; number of white persons over 20 years of age who couldn't read or write; blind persons and aliens - foreigners not naturalized. But, none of these additional categories were found marked. The only Martin in Arkansas old enough to have been a Revolutionary soldier was Joshua MARTIN who was between 70 and 80 and lived in Izard county in 1830. [Townships were usually not listed].

The Martins of Camden Dist. SC

The research in this article has been done by Mrs. Carolyn COLE, 831 S. Meadowbrook, Wynne, AR 72396 and Mrs. Grace Hollis PURYEAR, deceased, of Tulsa, OKla. Mrs. Puryear was in possession of letters written to Eliza MARTIN MARLEY from her father, Daniel McNair MARTIN, of Jackson Co. AL.

Early in 1849, Daniel McNair MARTIN, then past 48, having lost his wife Eliza, mother of several deceased babies and small children, two boys who later died in their teens and two other nearly grown children who lived to be old, married again. This wife was Cynthia GAY and on 24 Dec. 1849 a baby girl was born to them. The baby was named Eliza Ann Elizabeth MARTIN and she became the grandmother of Mrs. PURYEAR. The baby was called Eliza and when she was only 9 months old, on 25 Sept. 1850 [Bible] her mother, Cynthia, died of typhoid fever in Jackson Co. AL. Daniel McNair MARTIN, never being long between wives, soon married again and most of Eliza's infancy was spent with her mother's old maid sister, Mary GAY. In 1855 some of the GAY uncles moved to San Saba Co. TX. In 1886, when little Ella was six years old, her Uncle Samuel A. GAY and his bride came back to Bellefonte, Jackson Co. AL on their honeymoon. They persuaded Sam's sister, Mary, to go back to Texas with them and she persuaded Daniel McNAIR MARTIN to let her take little Ella, promising to bring her back two years later - a promise she didn't keep. Daniel MARTIN never saw his daughter again.

Mrs. PURYEAR began her genealogical research in 1930 and knew her MARTIN lineage would be the most difficult to trace, but her mother remembered that her mother, Ella, had kept letters written by her father. In a safety deposit box kept by her aunts were letters written to Ella by her father between 1866 and 1886. These letters fill 38 legal size pages and were the beginning for this research. Some of the letters are as follows:

Bellefonte, Jackson County, Alabama
May 18, 1870

Ella will tell Mr. NEWTON that my Great-grandfather came from Ireland about the year 1740. His name was John MARTIN. He landed in Philadelphia, married an Irish lady, settled in Pennsylvania, moved from there to the Clover Bottoms of Virginia. Moved from there to Kershaw District, near Camden in South Carolina. His three sons' names were David MARTIN, Robert MARTIN and Samuel MARTIN. He and his sons lived there some time after the Revolutionary War. The three sons served in the Rebel Army.

David was my grandfather. He was married before the Revolutionary War came on. My father's name was John MARTIN. He was born November the 21st, 1775, the very year that the Revolution began. My father had four brothers and one sister: William MARTIN, Sherwood MARTIN, Francis A. MARTIN, Green MARTIN, and sister Betsey MARTIN.

I was born on the 4th of September, 1800. If I had more paper I could tell more. [He did find more paper, because enclosed in the same letter was the following]:

- *Daniel McNAIR MARTIN was born on the 4th day of September, in the year 1800, near to Camden in South Carolina. Always a Democrat.
- *William Green MARTIN my next brother, was born in South Carolina near to Camden on the 3rd day of February 1803. Has been ten years in California; now lives in Walker County, Texas. Always a Democrat.
- *Robert Warren MARTIN is my next brother in my esteem but not in age, was born in Lee County, Virginia, August 28th, 1807. Now lives in Walker Co. Texas. A Democrat, always.
- *James Cook MARTIN was born in Lee County, Virginia, April 28th, 1805, lives in Shelbyville, Middle Tennessee. Always a Whig before 1860, then a Tory to his Country, and yet worse is now a Radical, a Scalawag. I have no use for him, don't never want to see him again.
- *Susanna Caroline MARTIN was born in Lee County, Virginia, Sept. 16th, 1810 and is now the Widow SNOODGRASS. Her husband died about three weeks ago. She is a good Reb.
- *William Henry Harrison MARTIN was born in Cumberland Gap, Knox County, KY March the 7th, 1813 and died in Winchester, Tennessee 23rd of December, 1825.
- *Elizabeth Beaty MARTIN was born in Winchester, Tenn. Dec. 23, 1815. Was the Widow DAVIS, then Widow HUDSON and now the Widow BAKER. She lives in East Tenn. in sight of Knoxville. A very good Reb.

MARTIN FAMILY QUARTERLY

*John Daugherty MARTIN was born October the 16th, 1818 in Winchester, Tennessee and died January the 25th, 1826 in the same place.
*Nathan Green MARTIN was born in Winchester, Tenn. July the 20th, 1821. He lived, ever since he was grown up, in the neighborhood of Raymond, Mississippi. His wife died, left only one child, a daughter. She is married to a man by the name of McNAIR. The last I heard from this, my youngest brother, he was talking of going to Vicksburg to live. Always a Democrat.

This sheet is badly written because my pen is worn out. I had no other.

My Blessed Little Ella, Goodby,

(signed) Daniel McNAIR MARTIN

Sunday Evening, July 21, 1867
All gone from home but me and the Old Woman and she is asleep.
Dear Little Daughter Ella:

I received your kind letter about the last of May (the one you wrote 11th to 24th of April, 1867). It contained some of your beautiful hair, I don't call it red. I think the color beautiful. I wear my hair short in summer and long in winter. It is too short now to send it but when it grows long I will send you some of it, but I can't braid it pretty like you did yours. The reason I have not written you sooner after receiving yours, is that I had written you a long letter not long before I received yours and I have been waiting for an answer to it. It being so long and no answer yet, I am beginning to think that you have not received it.

I am from this on going to set down the date of every letter that I write to you and set down the day that I receive yours and write it to you, so you may know whether you got all of my letters or not. And I want you to do the same and write it to me, so that we can tell whether we get all of each others letters or not. You keep all of my letters and I will keep all of your letters. We are all well but poor as Job's turkey.

We are now living three miles north of Bellefonte on the north side of the Memphis and Charleston Railroad, one hundred yards from the post marked "261 miles from Memphis and 11 miles from Stephenson." When I say we, I mean myself and Old Lady, a little boy named Skelton TAYLOR that is bound to me to raise and your sister, Virginia G. STUART and her husband, William G. STUART and their four children, makes up the sum total of our family. The children's names are Eliza Jane, Salena Lampkin, James Polk and the Baby is now nearly a year old and has no name but Sissy.

Your brother Billie lives in Bellefonte in what was left of my old houses and is trying to keep tavern in a very small way. His wife is Virginia's husband's sister. Her name was Cornelia STUART. They have four children, one daughter and three sons. Their oldest son, Elbert Kennedy, died in time of the War. They have two boys and one girl living, to wit: John Stuart Martin, Anna Matta and Daniel M. I have now written you all about your Pa's side of the house. Next time I will write about your Mother's kinfolks.

My Dear Little Ella, may the God of Heaven protect you and bless you, is my sincere prayer. You are so far off that I cannot but fear that I never shall see you in this world and it grieves me sore, but I hope that your Aunts and Uncle John will be good friends to you. I am now older than my Father was when he died and of course cannot live long. I have no money to come to see you on and if I had, I fear that I could not stand the trip out there and back. I have thought sometimes of having you brought back to this country, if you were willing and I could get the money to pay the expense. But then again, when I look around at the condition of this country, I think perhaps you are better off where you are, or at least you would be after I am dead and gone.

I am now and have been for some time trying to sell some of my land, in order to get money to send you, which you need now for you ought to have more schooling. Tell your Aunt Cynthia that if she has paid your tuition for the school that you was going to when you wrote in April last, that she shall not lose it for I will try and raise it and send it to her. I am now due you about six hundred dollars; the balance of principle and interest on the amount that I received as your guardian from your grandfather GAY's estate, besides what I intend to give you out of my estate. That will be much less than it would have been if the Yankees had not robbed me of every thing I had on earth except my land.

I want you to keep this letter. It may be of use to you hereafter.

From your Affectionate Father,
Most Respectfully,
Daniel W. MARTIN

Excerpts from other letters:

30 Aug. 1868 - Your letters make me love you so much. The day-before-yesterday evening I received your letter No. 6, dated August the 6th, 1868, at Sunset in the Village of San Saba. With the eye of imagination, I look at the scenery as you have described it. Around you the Elms, the Post Oaks, the houses, the rock fence and Mesquite - and my bosom swells with a wish to be with you in San Saba.

20 March 1870 - I have a large map of Texas with all the counties laid down on it that were counties when the map was made. I have looked at that map many a time to see if I could find the spot where my dear little daughter lived. I found San Saba River running into the Colorado River on the west side. I find several creeks marked on the map but I can't find Routh Creek. You say that you are at home on the banks of the Colorado but whereabouts on its banks you did not say.

15 May 1870 - I read your letters over three times and then got down my map for the spot where my darling daughter lives and found it by following the Colorado down 14 miles below the mouth of the San Saba. There is no San Saba or Lampasas County on my map. Burnet County is put down on my map.

4 December 1870 - I received your letter dated Lampasas, October the 6th, 1870....

22 December 1873 - I am living out in the country 4 miles north-east of Bellefonte, on the 80 acres adjoining old Mr. BARBER on the east.

MARTIN FAMILY QUARTERLY

17 April 1881 - Your sister's son, James STUART is one of the best young men in the world and your brother's son, John S. MARTIN is equal to Jimmie. I love both the boys. Inclosed I send you my picture and my young wife's taken sitting side by side. I would like to see yours and Hamp's taken that way. I will show your letter to your Brother and Sister and their children. Your Sister has one daughter married to a man named P. W. KEITH. They have one child so I am now great-grandfather. We have had more cold weather than ever. I will write more soon as I can.

Your Pa,
D. W. MARTIN

In 1769 South Carolina was divided into 7 circuit court districts: Ninety-Six, Camden, Orangeburg, Cheraws, Georgetown, Charleston and Beaufort. In 1785 Camden Dist. was subdivided into 7 counties: Lancaster, York, Chester, Fairfield, Richland, Claremont and Clarendon. Lancaster county extended just south of Camden. The Wateree River divided Lancaster county from Richland and Fairfield counties.

Kershaw county was formed from parts of Lancaster, Claremont, Richland and Fairfield, so records between 1785 and 1791 for Kershaw can be found in either of the four counties. In 1798 Kershaw Dist. embraced Richland county, which in 1799 was created as a separate district [1].

Camden Dist. contains the present day counties of York, Chester, Lancaster, Fairfield, Kershaw, Richland, Lee, Sumter and Clarendon.

Daniel McNaair MARTIN said that his great grandfather, John MARTIN, came to Kershaw Dist. near Camden; his three sons were David, Robert & Samuel MARTIN. He and his three sons lived there some time after the Revolutionary War [2].

In the 1790 census, Camden Dist.-Richland Co. SC we find the following:

| MARTIN, John*  | males over 16 | males under 16 | females |
|----------------|---------------|----------------|---------|
| Samuel*        | 1             | 2              | 2       |
| David*         | 2             | 3              | 2       |
| Joseph         | 1             | 2              | 3       |
| James          | 2             | 1              | 4       |
| Joseph         | 1             | 3              | 5       |
| MARTYN, Martin | 1             | 0              | 0       |
| GRANT, Lewis   | 2             | 3              | 1       |
| widow          | 2             | 3              | 2       |
| BURNS, John    | 1             | 6              | 2       |

In the 1790 census of Camden Dist.-Richland Co. John MARTIN* could be the great grandfather of Daniel McNaair MARTIN. The David MARTIN* is probably Daniel's grandfather, but there is one male over 16 and one male under 16 who are unknown. The Samuel MARTIN* could be David's brother.

By 1800 I believe the great grandfather, John MARTIN, and the grandfather, David MARTIN, were dead. Martin heads of families in Kershaw Co. were: Abner, John, John, John, Mary, Samuel and Sarah. None of the John MARTIN's is over 45 years of age. By 1810 Kershaw Co. had the following MARTIN's: Francis, William, Mary, Sarah and Susan.

1. David MARTIN (son of John MARTIN)

David MARTIN died before 1814, SC. He married Susanna whose will was made 28 May 1814, Kershaw Dist., SC, no probate date available.

Susanna MARTIN's will names all the children Daniel McNair MARTIN named in his letters with the exception of Green MARTIN. The will doesn't name any additional children either.

Since the 1790 census listing in Camden Dist. listed 2 males over 16; 6 males under 16 and 2 females it is believed that all the children, with the exception of one son, would have been born after 1774. The will of Susanna doesn't indicate any of the children were minors, so all of David and Susanna's children were probably born between 1774-1793.

WILL OF SUSANNA MARTIN

KERSHAW DIST. SC - WILL BOOK C - P. 198

In the name of God, Amen, I, Susanna MARTIN, relict of David MARTIN, deceased, of the State of South Carolina and Kershaw District, being very sick and weak of body but of perfect mind and sound disposing memory, and calling to mind the mortality and know it is apt for all men once to die, do make and ordain this, my last will and testament, and principally and first of all I give and Recommend my soule unto the hands of Almighty God who gave it to me, nothing doubting but I shall, at the General Resurrection receive the same again by the mighty power of God.

My body I recommend to the earth to be buried in decent Christian burial, according to the discretion of my executors, whom I shall hereafter name.

Item: I give and bequeath to my Dearly Beloved son John MARTIN, 1 shilling of the current money of the said state of Carolina, and no more.

Item: I give and bequeath to my Dearly Beloved son William MARTIN, 1 shilling of like money, and no more.

Item: I give and bequeath to my Dearly Beloved daughter Betsey GRANT, 1 shilling of like money and no more, one bed and furniture and no more.

I give and bequeath to my sons Sherwood and Francis MARTIN the balance of my estate to be divided in the following manner: VIZ, to my son Francis I give all the stock of hogs now on my plantation, and Sixty dollars cash, and the balance of all the singular, the remainder of my estate, after all my just debts and my funeral expenses are paid, to be equally divided between the said Sherwood and Francis MARTIN; and further I nominate and appoint my two sons, William and Sherwood MARTIN executors of this my last Will and Testament, and I do hereby disanul and revoke all former Wills, Testaments, legacies and bequeaths by me whatsoever formerly made, ratifying and confirming this and no other as my last Will and Testament. In Testamony whereof I have here-unto set my hand and seal this 28th day of May, 1814.

John Ervin MARTIN was born in Freeemington, Effingham Co. IL 29 Jan. 1836. He had one brother, Edmund (or Edmond) who was born in 1827, Tenn., another brother, Patrick, was born in 1832 in IL. There may have been other children. Joseph Ervin MARTIN is shown on the 1860 census of Ark. He returned to IL with his wife and 2 yr. old son, Charles Union, and enlisted in the Union Army in Shelbyville, IL 15 Aug. 1862 in 126th IL Infantry. His 2nd son, Frances Marion, was born in IL in 1862. Joseph Ervin was discharged 12 July 1865. His 3rd child, James Ervin MARTIN was born 17 Aug. 1866. Joseph Ervin MARTIN died 15 Dec. 1922 and is buried in the National Cemetery in Fort Smith, Ark. His death certificate shows his mother's name was Elizabeth CHAMBERS. His father's name was not known. I am searching for the name of his father and further information about his mother. Have reason to believe this family migrated from North or South Carolina or Virginia.

DICKERSON-MARTIN: Need information on Elizabeth DICKERSON, b. 5 Nov. 1786, Halifax Co. VA, place unknown. Elizabeth (some family sources say she had middle name of Christian) DICKERSON married Robert MARTIN on 31 March 1812, Montgomery Co. VA. Surely was Obadiah DICKERSON, no info. on him. Robert MARTIN was b. 8 Oct. 1787, son of Marshall MARTIN and wife Mary Isham KEY. Robert and wife are buried in Oakwood Cemetery, Pulaski, VA. Robert was killed 8 April 1859 by a falling tree. Headstone on grave of Elizabeth DICKERSON MARTIN gives date of death as 29 April 1866. I have not been able to locate her place of death. I have much authentic Martin data but have been unable to obtain any information on Elizabeth DICKERSON. There were many DICKERSONS in Halifax Co. VA at the time of Elizabeth's birth.

I ordered an 1885 map and list of post offices in Alabama from the Gold Bug. I am now able to locate towns I could never find on any other map. One of my ancestors lived at Bughall Beat in Bullock Co. AL in 1880 census. Thanks to these maps I now know where this place is located.
